Cafeteria Charge Policy

Adults and High School students are not allowed to charge.

Students at the K8 Schools will be allowed to charge up to $4.00. When a child's charges reach this limit they will not be allowed to charge. If a child has charged up to $4.00 and needs a school meal and does not have enough money to pay for a meal, he or she will be given a Peanut butter sandwich, fruit and white milk at no charge.

- Extra entrées and ala cart items can not be charged.
- Students who owe charges are not to purchase from the snack bar.

If a free and reduced meal application has been submitted, parents are responsible for the cost of their children's meals until it has been received and approved.

The Food Service Department at all of the K8 Schools does send home account balance letters weekly.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, national origin, age, or disability. If you believe you have been discriminated against write to: Dept. of Agriculture, Wash. DC 20250.
