

All sites participate in the National School Lunch program. Food and beverages sold or served on campus meet the State and Federal nutrition recommendations and standards. We provide students with access to a variety of affordable and appealing foods that meet the health and nutrition needs of students.